Leader's Line...

Tie on a Streamer

COLIN KUMABE, PRESIDENT

n your next fishing trip try a streamer. Often fish will take a streamer when they stop taking your dry fly, wet fly or nymph. When the fish stop eating the hatching insects, they are still in the water. Try something different and you may catch fish while everyone is heading back to their cars. When I first joined the club, Allen Rohrer gave me at tip to fish the Owens River. He waited until the late evenings to "get my broom handle to cast a big fly (Look for Allen Rohrer's photos in the clubhouse and his name on trophies]."

I can't say that I used a broom handle, but I often stop and cast streamers before leaving the stream.

Trout will strike a streamer because of:

- Hunger
- Curiosity
- Anger
- Playfulness

When the hatch stops, then what are the trout doing? Trout may then strike for any of these four reasons,.

In the Club's Beginning Fly Tying Class, we learned to tie four essential streamers: the Muddler Minnow, Wooly Bugger, Clouser Minnow and Matuka. Feathers and hair on these streamers create the illusion of movement, but what is needed to encourage anger, curiosity or playfulness in a trout?

Fishing these streamers in moving water involves trial and error. Cast the streamer across the current.

then allow the streamer to drift downstream before beginning to strip. Remember to keep in mind that every strip makes the streamer jerk or dart; this is especially true when crossing water moving at different speeds. Each cast can result in different action on the streamer.

Repeat the same cast, then begin stripping sooner and possibly with a different speed or rhythm. Sometimes, stop stripping and twitch the rod tip before resuming stripping. Move to a few feet upstream or downstream if there are no signs of the fish.

So, the next time you are fishing and the hatch stops, tie on that big ugly streamer. Who knows, the trout may be hungry, curious, angry or playful. Good casts allow your streamer to be in the right spot and cover more water.

Practice your casting at the Pond. Better casts result in efficiently fishing streams or lakes. See you at the Pond!

Frank Burr on Heritage Trout and Tenkara

STEVE JONES, 1ST VICE PRESIDENT

Have you ever heard of the Heritage Trout Program? We're going to learn about it from our November speaker. Frank Burr specializes in golden trout and other Heritage Trout species and knows a lot about the California Heritage Trout Program.

The last Thursday of November is Thanksgiving, so our club meeting will be the third Thursday of the month, which is November 21.

Frank learned about fly fishing and fly tying in summer school at the age of seven, along with Tenkara fishing, in Japan in 1970. A native of Southern California, Frank fly fishes throughout the state. Although trout is his favorite species, Frank will fly fish for any species just to get in a day of fishing.

Frank has worked in the fly fishing industry for the past six years for Orvis and now for Snowbee USA. Frank is also a fly fishing instructor and guide specializing in golden trout and others in the Heritage Trout Species.

The Wild Trout Program was started by the California Fish and Game commission in 1971 and was expanded in 1998 to include the California Heritage Trout Program. Its mission is to protect and enhance California's heritage and wild trout resources, while providing opportunities for high quality wild trout angling. The goals of the program include:

- Manage designated Heritage and Wild Trout Waters.
- Each year, recommend new waters to be designated as wild trout fisheries to the commission.
- Protect and restore native trout and their habitats.
- Conduct research and evaluate angling regulations.
- Engage the public.

Frank's program will also include the history and techniques of Tenkara fishing.

I hope you are as excited as I am to learn about the Heritage Trout Program and Tenkara fishing! Bring your family and friends to our meetings. Our monthly meetings are a great place to introduce people to the Club. See you there on Thursday, November 21!

Anyone...? Bueller...? Training Session Coming up for: Trout in the Classroom

BOB ALLEN, MEMBER COLIN KUMABE, PRESIDENT

To all interested Club members and friends, first let us express our appreciation for your interest in the TROUT IN THE CLASSROOM program. It is only by the volunteers that step forward and assist with the many programs of the Long Beach Casting Club that we are able to make a difference in our communities. Included in the August Target Talk there is an article that further explains the mission of the partnership of our Club, California Department of Fish and Wildlife and of course the Long Beach Unified School District. Take a moment and look it over: www.longbeachcastingclub.org, you can also access the Club on Facebook. So what is the next step?

Saturday, November 9th: the Club will host a training session for all volunteers and participating teachers, to be conducted by Jennifer O'Brien, leading to certification. It starts at 9:00 am and ends around noon, with lunch provided by the Club. We will have an opportunity to again showcase our many talents and abilities as a sponsoring club. This will be a wonderful opportunity to develop a relationship with partnering teachers and better understand their possible needs and abilities [Editor's Note: see October 2019 issue of Target Talk for a flyer with all the details-Rob].

Once this timeline is completed we will be moving into the winter program where the aquariums, equipment, curriculum and trout eggs will be delivered to the schools of participating teachers and we are off and running for the next seven weeks, culminating in a trout release day activity. More on this phase soon.

We're anticipating an exciting and rewarding experience as we move forward with this program.

Big Sky Country did NOT Disappoint!

MICK WOODBURY, PAST PRESIDENT

he Club's September exploratory trip to Western Montana only scratched the surface. With 400 miles of rivers and streams within two hours of Missoula, three days of fishing just couldn't begin to cover it all. But what we saw, caught and experienced was primo.

BITTERROOT RIVER: a winding, shallow, cobblestoneladen stream offers plenty of fish and great scenery. Fished from rafts with excellent guides from Freestone Fly Shop, it produced well with hopper/dropper setups and with dries. The river gave up some nice fish both drifting and wading.

Water flows were down to the 300 cfs range so a couple of short portages were necessary which only added to the adventure. Cuts, rainbows and cut bows were prevalent with a mixing of browns throughout in the mix of runs, riffles, pools, flats, gravel bars, braids and channels.

CLARK FORK RIVER: though it's much larger than the Bitterroot and ran at about 1,700 cfs, the competent Clark Fork guides and drift boats from Dixon Adventures in Missoula kept us on fish all day. This is another don't-miss experience. Hopper/dropper and dries filled the day and both worked well as conditions changed. An added treat was Jackie Blue, the guide dog who added her own "fish-whisperer" magic.

This is big rainbow and brown water with spectacular scenery. In the major rivers in Montana, stocking was stopped in the 1970s. Most rivers are naturally selfsustaining and the trout are wild and hot.

LODGING: If you're thinking about a couple's trip, this is the place. Two or three couples could stay at Arrowleaf very reasonably and enjoy top-notch accommodations. With hot tub, lots of spacious rooms and outdoor grill, it's beautifully furnished and has a top-of-the-line kitchen. This ain't no typical fish camp. The ladies would love it (our guys sure did!).

GRUB: traveling south from Missoula, and just a few miles from the house, you pass a grocery store as nice as anything you could ever want. There is no reason to rough it. There is also a steak house nearby and you won't want to miss Cowboy Troy's for great burgers, excellent pizza and local color.

STILL TO EXPLORE: the Blackfoot River where A RIVER Runs Through IT was filmed and the Big Hole River are still on the list to be checked out. No dates have been set yet for next year; we're still savoring the memories.

TARGET TALK

Lower Owens January, February and March!

YASH ISEDA, PAST PRESIDENT

t's that time of year again to start preparing for our annual trips to Bishop to fish the Lower Owens.

In past years we've been hindered by weather, water flow and the Super Bowl. For those who've endured, the trips have been worth it. We always have great fun. Many members have been adventuresome and rented snow shoes to fish Hot Creek and the Upper Owens.

The January trip is scheduled for January 2-5. Plan ahead for your accommodations. We meet for dinner each night: Thursday at Amigos, Friday at Yamatani and Saturday at the Pizza Factory at 6:00 PM. After dinner we gather at the Creekside Lobby for a social hour.

If you're new to the club and need help, meet members at the campground on Chalk Bluff Road on Saturday at about 8:00 AM. You'll be matched with a club member to fish the river. We also meet again at noon for lunch provided by Dan and Yash at the campground.

On Saturday, December 28 there will be a workshop at 9:00 AM at the club. It will cover all information you will need for the trip to the Lower Owens. There is also a handbook on our website. Under "LINKS", click on "CLUB TRIPS", find "LOWER OWENS #1, JANUARY 2-5, 2020", then click on "Details" and you will find the handbook. See you on the river!

Fly Tying Is An Essential Skill

SCOTT DAVIDSON, BEGINNING TYING CLASS COORDINATOR

ly fishing primary consists of three questions: How to cast? Where to cast? And what to cast?

"How to cast" a fly and fly line is the preeminent skill because a fly that isn't in front of a fish is just a pretty hook. Those skills are taught in the club's awesome fly-casting classes. With some practice you will learn five or more different casts to help you get that fly into the water.

"Where to cast" is taught in our "ON THE RIVER" clinics and is important because 90% of the fish are in 10% of the water.

That leaves "What to cast?" and that knowledge is essential. So how do you learn it?

You can read a bunch of books. You can watch 1,000 videos on YouTube. Or you can take entomology (study of bugs) classes. But it is hard to learn it on your own.

I have one book with over 3,600 fly patterns for trout. There are thousands more for bass, pike, bonito, bonefish, etc. etc. How can anyone remember all of that?

The answer is "You can't!" Instead you must learn the language of fly tiers so you can quickly and assertively

WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THESE...

...AND THIS?

The LBCC Beginning Fly Tying Class and You!!!!!

Join us for a winter semester of basic fly tying!

Open to everyone, you do not need to be a member of LBCC to join us for this class.

Tuesday Evenings 7:00 PM Start, 6:30 PM Set up October 22, 2019, to March 3, 2020

This winter, don't complain about the rain; join us and up your fishing game! Check out our class page for more info sort through all of those thousands of patterns to find just the right one for your next trip. How do you learn that language? Simple: by attending the most incredible and exciting fly tying class offered in California.

Spend this winter learning to tie flies. Join us on Tuesday nights and give your fly fishing game a major boost. Learn techniques such as flattening thread, dubbing bodies, splitting tails, spinning hair, posting wings and about 20 other basic fly tying skills.

You will learn the language and gain the skills. At the end you will be more confident in the fly shop and on the water, you will be better able to talk to others about the patterns you use and why and you will have spent the winter upping your game instead of crying about the rain. Come join us on winter Tuesdays!

Email Scott Davidson at lbccflytyingclass@gmail.com with any questions or to get on this years' mailing list.

The Venison Stag: Our Annual Holiday Dinner

STEVE JONES, 1ST VICE PRESIDENT

pelieve it our not, it is time to start thinking about one of our club's most important and enjoyable social events of the year. Is the Venison Stag Holiday Dinner on your calendar? If it is not, we hope that you and your spouse or family members block out this date. Especially for those who have not attended one before! This year's event will be held at our club house on Saturday, December 7th with a Social Hour beginning at 6:00 PM and followed by Dinner at 7:00 PM.

This is a great opportunity to sit down to a tasty prime rib dinner with friends before the hectic holiday season starts. The Stag is our big social event. We don't have any formal speeches. It is a great time to spend with family and friends. The price is only $20.00 for adults and $6.00 for children, and $25.00 at the door. Unfortunately, because of our growing membership, we can only accommodate those without reservations if there is room.

We always appreciate those who volunteer to help with some aspect of the dinner, whether it is the decorating, kitchen work or cleaning. It takes an army to pull this off. I am recruiting help; new members, this is your opportunity to get involved and your opportunity to get to know the members of our club.

I'll need volunteers for two Saturdays, November 23rd and November 30th, for clubhouse cleaning such as washing all of the light fixture lenses, dusting, washing windows, mopping floors, washing all of our dishes and silverware, etc. We will also need a crew on December 7th to do the last minute decorating, cleaning and table setting. We will also need those who are willing to help with the meal preparation and serving. Finally we will need a clean-up crew for washing dishes and clean-up after the festivities or call me at (562)682-7920 or see me at one of our events to sign up for some of these work projects. We will have a volunteer raffle this year. For every hour worked you may fill out a ticket for a prize.

We need to get a headcount for this year's dinner. In years past we have prepared for 100 and only 60-70 participated. This year we will have a deadline of November 20th for reserved ticket sales. We will order dinners for the number of members that sign up as of November 20th plus and additional 10% for late commers who will have to pay a non-reserved ticket price of $25.00. The key here is to make your reservations early.

On the previous page of this month's Target Talk, you will find a registration form that you can fill out and return in an envelope via mail with your cash or check, or you may give it to any board member, who will place it in the treasurer's secured drawer. Checks should be made out to 'The Long Beach Casting Club' and noted 'Venison Stag'. I will also post a reservation sign-up in the clubhouse.

Be sure to reserve your place and come and enjoy this wonderful event.

Fly Tying Tip: Bodkin Cleaner

DAVE BOYER, MEMBER

Recently, while I was tying with a group at the local fly shop, one of the tiers used some super glue on a bodkin to finish the head of his fly, which I also do regularly. But once done, he let the glue sit on the bodkin and harden, which messes up a good bodkin.

Consider using some steel wool to clean off the bodkin. I place a small amount in one of my Renzetti tool holder holes (see photo). Then I stab the bodkin into the steel wool, to clean off the bodkin and to have a convenient location to store more than one bodkin at a time.

If you do not have a tool holder, you can take an old 35mm film canister, or similar (pill container in photo), and fill with steel wool. Makes a great tool to keep your bodkins clean. You can acquire non-soaped steel wool throughahardware store in the paint department. I find the medium or coarse steel wool to be the best for "scraping" off adhesive or super glue residue.

Fly of the Month: Doug's Stacked Baetis

JOHN VAN DERHOOF, EDITOR

 $\mathsf{T}$  have to admit it. I have a favorite fishing place on this planet. I have fished all over (well certainly not as  $\blacksquare$ much as Libeu) but yeah, I have fished fresh and salt. Alaska and Mexico. Montana and Christmas Island. Costa Rica and limestone creeks in Pennsylvania. I also have favorite areas: our own Eastern Sierra ranks number Two on my list and the rivers and lakes in the Yellowstone region are ranked number Three. Still sitting out there in the Number One spot is the Green River, Utah!

I usually go in the springtime and at that time it's nymphs and a really fun BWO hatch. Nymphs, emergers and dries all day and everyday. Fly size is small—anywhere from a #16 nymph down to a size 24 dry. This last spring while fishing with my favorite guide on the river, Doug Roberts, owner of Old Moe Guide Service, I fished a Hackle Stacker style fly for the first time in years. It floated, it was very visible and dang, it worked! So here is my turn to share it.

Now I learned how to tie Hackle Stackers 25 years ago from the originator himself, Bob Quigley. I enjoyed tying them for a while because they were a novelty but I was not fishing them as much as I should have back then and their charm wore off. They took more time to tie and I, frankly, didn't see the need. Well I'm back in the hackle stacker fold now. They fish just like my favorite all 'round fly: the Sparkle Dun. The way the hackle lays out around the thorax gives the fly remarkable floatability even in slightly rougher water. Their appearance on the water certainly fools fish with that low profile and the hackle makes a great impressionistic foil of legs vs. wings.

Of course I have used this pattern very effectively on the Green River but the Madison, Hot Creek, the Upper and Lower 'O' and a variety of other smaller waters would all prove prime waters for its use. Of course, you can also tie this pattern in other mayfly imitations like a PMD, Trico, Tiny Western Olive, Mahogany Dun and more. But really, the greatest thing about the Doug's Stacked Dun is the danged thing works. Tie up a bunch and take 'em out for a test drive the next time you go fishing.

MATERIALS FOR THE DOUG'S STACKED BAETIS:

Hook: Tiemco 9300, 100 or 101 dry fly hook in sizes 16 to 20 or your favorite brand's standard, or 1X heavy dry fly hook.

Thread: Veevus Dark Olive 12/0. Shuck: Claret or Brown Zelon or Darlon.

Body: Dark olive dubbing dressed

Ribbing: Chartreuse extra small Ultra

Wire.

Hackle: Medium dun or rusty dun hackle

(bluish gray).

Thorax: Peacock Ice Dubbing. Head: Dark Olive tying thread.

HOW TO TIE DOUG'S STACKED BAETIS:

- 1. Place the hook into the vise and attach your thread at the head space, and wind down to the end of the shank. Select a small clump of claret or brown Zelon or Darlon (I use Darlon because it has a huge range of colors available and is usually straighter and finer textured). Tie in the shuck. The length should be about the length of the body—not including the thorax. I also like to feather and taper the ends of the shuck so it is not cut off straight and flush like a paint brush.
- 2. Tie in your chartreuse wire ribbing, low and on the near side of the hook. Tying it in this location is best for reverse wound ribbing, as it will start right at the end of the body without creeping halfway up the far side. For ribbing wound in the conventional direction, tie it in low and on the far side of the hook.
- 3. Apply dubbing to your thread and wind forward to the thorax. Now wind the ribbing in the reverse direction evenly to the thorax and tie off. A good practice is to learn to "wiggle" off the excess wire by pinching at the tie down spot and, yes, wiggle the remaining wire until it breaks off. This will leave no sharp edges on the wire that will cut your thread, and will add years to the life of your poor scissors.
- 4. Time to create the hackle stacker... Start by holding the index finger of your "off" hand over the hook shank about four to six inches away. Right at the juncture between the body and thorax, wind your thread up and over the top of your finger and then one or two times around the hook shank. Now,, do this one or two more times until you have two or three four to six inch loops above the hook shank. The turns around the shank will help keep the large loop from being pulled smaller as you create the next large loop.
- 5. Select a nice long hackle (like a Whiting; it will make your life easier...) with the barb length sized for the fly or a half size smaller. Tie in the hackle with the dull side down, leaving about 1/16" of

- bare stem exposed. Holding the thread loops upright (I usually use my right index finger inside the loops of thread), wind the hackle smoothly up the thread and back down. Make sure that the amount of hackle wound on the thread cone will reach or be just barely short of the headspace. Lay the remaining hackle over the front side of the shank and tie it off. If needed you can stiffen the thread a bit before you wind the hackle by adding the smallest of amounts of a UV curing resin and hitting it with your blacklight.
- 6. Apply Peacock Ice Dubbing to your thread and wind a dubbing thorax. I actually prefer to keep the dubbing rather loose and spiky. This will allow the hackle to settle into the thorax rather than sit on top.

BAETIS HATCHING ON THE GREEN RIVER (APRIL 2018)

- Take hold of the thread loops of your hackle/wing, pulling it upright firmly, and with your other hand stroke the hackle barbs back towards the tail. Don't be too gentle—you want as many of the barbs as possible pulled back and out of the way so they don't get trapped underneath, which will give the fly a messy look.
- 8. Form a neat, small head and whip finish. The fly is now done and ready for a test drive at your favorite location. I know where mine would be...
